LSJ e mail had become a monster, sometimes e mails would load, other times not!!!
trying to simplify my life.

FYI - from danny forgot to ask you about email - why was LSJ email eliminated or INVALID?

hi dave danny from Isj I had to replace O ring again have u gotten any feed back from factory ?? the amount of water that is being used now I can't afford for this not working 100% I know when it was sized it was not going to work so hard but things change it's been about 10 times that o ring has been replace chris is killing me when it appears that it it's running because he's looking at brine discharge but no water for his plants anyway I hope u got fix thanks danny
