Understood.

I am trying to get to the point that I can produce a proposal for you. The only "measurable" item I have open is the L/H galley modifications.

I am not going to include any entertainment mods (new monitor, sub woofer(s) etc. as these items for review will be on a separate change order.

With an input date of the 15th, I want to keep things moving forward so we can order veneer and other long lead time items.

Best Regards,

Eric

to make balance the drawer next to entertainment should be three pull outs. otherwise does not look nice. . we also need table detail. subwoofer fits behind third chair lh side. bathroom no wood. . less drawers as well.
