Jeffrey:

Hope you had a good Passover/Easter Holiday Weekend.

Quick FYI - Ackley has still yet to provide any Real Financials (Revenues vs. Liabilities) on his Radio Station businesses. Frankly I am not sure if he knows what he is doing, or if at this point in time and he just wants to be elusive, regardless, until he provides the requisite information, we currently consider the Venture - On Hold!! (and I have made that known)

More importantly, I am writing to you about our follow up to getting together and discussing the other topic(s), that I mentioned to you, were better talked about together in person.

I'm just dropping this quick note post-holiday weekend because, yours, is obviously the more important schedule to coordinate around. I am going to be stateside for the rest of this month and as I mentioned in a previous email don't have a problem flying to see you for a day, depending on where you are. I also don't plan to be back in the USVI until the 1st or 2nd Week of May.

Anyway, let me know what you think works for you and I can make plans to shoot over to see you to quickly review things and discuss the best, next steps.

Talk soon,

McGee
