Thx , [REDACTED] has a great attitude but not a good presentation. Even After being in the states for years she speaks with a very harsh Russian accent . Impossible for US biz . I told her . She can teach tennis on the island or do massage but she can't answer phones or give direction per her accent

Jeffrey,

If you let me, I would like to take time to talk more than 1.5 hours to her before I make objective statements&tell you the entire impression she makes.

Tonight we agreed for an evening Skype. She is in Moscow now but based in Prague for her job where she works for 6 months now after she graduated from Undergrad.

Since you already asked:

For now, I didn't like that she speaks very quickly. Although she is independant , lived in Rome, USA (~11 years), Prague, very international background, she mentioned her mum and dad a Lot of times during our two calls. So she comes across as a very family attached person.

[REDACTED] and [REDACTED] had this fire in their eyes and "go-get it/I do everything to succeed " attitude, plus proven by impressive for me examples from their lives.

It is all subjective in my humble opinion anyway.

Positive aspects of [REDACTED]: she observed the PA job of her former boyfriend's family PA for 2 years and really loved it : how this PA is the entire part of the family, the relationship of trust and love that this family had with their PA really appeals to her. She saw with her eyes and experienced what it can possibly mean to be a PA for Jeffrey. This experience made her also want to do this job one day. She loved this caring for each other relationship between family & PA.

Now she works closely with the PA of CEO of a company so she sees what she does and also helps with administration tasks.

She describes herself as a good communicator who keeps in touch with all her friends and supports them and does things for them. Very generous and giving personality.

Her mum describes her as very honest.

She is hardworking&impresses people she works for given her work experiences. She got a full time teaching assistant position while being only an exchange student at [REDACTED]. This position is only reserved for n [REDACTED] non exchange students.

She wants to be able to travel at job and is not afraid to do anything at any time of day needed for her boss, she says. She can move anywhere , has a green card in USA and EU long term residency permit ([REDACTED]). She is humble.

Kind regards,
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED], I will talk to her. She seems serious lady but why you think [REDACTED] is not the best chance ?
Or [REDACTED] who already worked for business men as PA

Kind regards,
