Stefan is now running this company in L.A. sent by me (thats the positioning...)

Perfect platform, 1,000 employees, strong electric vehicle technology, made in USA.

US$ 1 billion needed to have cars on the road by end of 2018.

Stefan now brining in former colleague, Head of BMW i Project, the best electric car in the world. Super guy.

Business running out of cash because it was managed by crazy Chinese billionaire, so can get in now for valuation of about US$ 3 billion or hopefully less.

US$500m secured from another Chinese (Sunac), and I have another US$500m allocation.

Once car is on the road, valuation should go to US$ 8-10 billion.

Company info attached.
