As collectively we do not have the L/H divan figured out, what if you flew into ISP and give us a half hour (or more) for ALL OF US to discuss the divan / mid cabin design and then take a look at materials?

I believe it is important that we gain a solid direction regarding the mid cabin as it takes some time for engineering, etc.

Lastly, if the pillows have not been sent out from Palm Beach, you could bring those up on the plane.

Your thoughts?

Best Regards,

Eric
