So he told me I could choose either la or New York and he can find me a manager and I could take acting classes and accent reduction and go to open casting. He told me it's difficult to have an agent if you were not in a movie. Than he told me he could find me small parts and I can be an extra. He told me that I am extraordinary beautiful and asked me when I am going to see him again.

I asked him about london and he told me he doesn't know people and doesn't know how it works there but he knows in New York and la. He told me with the accent reduction I am going to improve a lot and be able to open myself to more options otherwise I am only play the European.

I like Barry a lot! Super nice!
