I'd recommend Test flight 1st thing upon arrival into Westfield, before inspection starts,.
- I'd also like to be on board the ferry flight from Oakland to Westfield if seller allows? to judge the flight for sound, vibration, work all cabin amenities and seat functionality before any inspection to start,.
This way, if we identify any issues during the flight from Oakland we could have them resolved during the inspection, with expectation of a test flight after the inspection if manufacture requires additional flight test to confirm all has been resolved.
