Jeffrey,

I am extremely surprised that Anna would say that I was digging into her personal life. I have been very sensitive to her situation and it has been all about me listening to her complaints and trying to make sense of the situation.

She told me about her worries about having to leave the island because Brice and Karen had told her in no uncertain terms that they were taking over.

I felt that Anna and I had a great working relationship the 5 days I was there and got something productive out of it.

Anna told me about Tap and her. Told me how he asked you permission to date her. I have no interest in her dating life details, but she threw in the details as part of our conversation about her ideas about how she could see the Island running in the future.

With your permission, I'd like to discuss this with Anna. I'm pretty sure somewhere along the way, something was lost in translation.

Thanks

John
