Gulfstream Westfield can support us:

Westfield can start Prebuy Monday March 6th,,

We can use Chevron Pilots to conduct test flight,, then utilize a Westfield avionics technician to sit in the jumpseat to observe auto pilot systems operation etc during the test flight,. Also I could have Chip observe as well during test flight?

Do you approve of this approach?

If so, I will request a final prebuy quote from Westfield to include 144month items as well, if you want 144 month items included during our prebuy?

Pls advice if you approve 144 month inclusion and Test flight profile?

Thank you,
Larry
