Jeffrey-the language PW feels they had from you read: "In essence the same information has been provided to the IRS by Apollo directly." I don't believe they feel that is not fully accurate and therefore broadened the concept to say Apollo's filings and those today were "based on the same underlying tax information." If you feel that doesn't help make your point/inference we can delete the sentence and go back to the draft I circulated yesterday as "final". This seems to be the last open point. I'm arnd if you want to talk. B

John-the language we wld include wld be: "In addition, the information included on the Forms 8865 and 8858 filed by the appropriate Apollo entities was based on the same underlying tax information that is included on the applicable International Information Returns being filed today."
I think accurate and pretty benign but please run your traps. Thx, brad
