Thank you for giving me everything. I don't know where I would be without you. For my education which has changed my life and given me direction, crazy medical expenses, home, food, water, light, warmth in winter, for giving everything you could when I cared about a boy and wanted to be with them, for your unbelievable loyalty and for placing your trust in me. ( my list could go on forever). I will be in gratitude for this for all my days. ❤️
