That's fine. It will be a settlement conversation.

Why don't we schedule a time on Sat to ensure availability? You tell me what is best for you.

ok, two things , if for some reason you decide not to again be available . all further discussions will be through legal. I am willing to talk to you directly as I have read the complaint , and frankly , it was so ugly that I thought to pause. Each time we have spoken in the past , the promises , stories re other investors and changing numbers are all detailed. for our conversation it is for settlment purposes only. therefore I will not , be able to use our conversation in the lawsuit and neither can you. if you agree to those terms i will call sat.

to set the record straight if nothing else , you failed to respond repeatedly telling me each time that you would either call that evening or the next day, and nothing. so any self serving emails are not appreciated nor accurate. . that being said please give me a phone number that you will answer on saturday,

Jeffrey,

While you are extending courtesies, I would appreciate the courtesy of a phone call back/discussion. I have reached out repeatedly in the last several weeks, and my overtures have been ignored. I am available at your convenience.

Bob Feldman, copied, can accept service for me personally. Van Durrer, copied, can accept service on behalf of the Company.
