Saw both [REDACTED] today, the original one (with the baby) said she had three candidates, all on them in NYC right now. She wasn't sure if I liked them or not and said she would send pictures tonight when she got home. Hope at least one of them is ok.

The second one didn't have anyone.

[REDACTED] is moving out from the Bf and said she could meet, starting the end of the week - she needs to move out asap.
