Attached for your reference
Confirming nothing has been ordered
Also I did not direct Anna or anyone to remove the kitchen cabinets from the cottage
I actually asked why she did it, her response was to make the place look tidy
This occurred the same time she packing stuff up for storage???
The cottage is basically empty. Except for the mattress they are sleeping on.

I'm working on budget for cottage reno

As discussed this is the area we propose to enclose at the staff cottage
It will add more room to the kitchen - living space and also create room which [REDACTED] will use for sewing
It will lessen the visual impact of the cottage to the service road
Can we add this to the budget for renovation
