I think this is much more serious than a whining. My inner pain has reached a level that you can't even imagine, I am not able to handle it anymore, it's not about the job. Having to keep everything inside myself is killing me. I'm sorry to hear you don't take my words seriously. Today, I've realized that if I died you wouldn't even notice and no one would be there for me, while if you were in danger, I would give up my life for you.
