Sorry Jeffrey, you were right. I totally agree with you. It's wrong to do this with people I know without telling them. When I spoke to you last night it was in a generic way as a potential business in order to make money and since I know many people doing it I thought it was ok. I understand it's wrong but I don't believe "thief" is the appropriate word to describe it. When you say: "Imagine you ask to borrow my car. You then take it and rent it to a stranger -take the money . IT IS CALLED THEFT ." Didn't you do something similar with the Limousine ? When you first told me I thought it was a smart idea :)

No , I owned it . I paid for it with the money I got from passengers . No way similar , yours is simply stealing .

imagine [REDACTED] comes to you and says , can you help me get jeffreys credit card. I need money. you ask him for the card and then i will buy some things i need. she would be called a thief , by anyone with even half a brain. the fact that she didn't actually steal the card is irrelevant
