yes, tell him you are a woman who feels that fact is being held against you. not fair, melinda can't champion bing for empowering women, but just the ones she likes

Yes they want to learn more about drivers of cost for health in U.S., disease burden and trends and investments in health that the bank and others have made in foreign countries. Want to know about Ebola and regional stuff and what everyone means by health systems strengthening etc. also asking about African Union cdc stuff.

Good morning! There was a wrong prefix to [REDACTED] number. They talked yesterday. Do not think visa is a problem. If she has one to France it is valid as tourist visa for three months stay anywhere in EU. When we have finished the big seminar we have here right now on the 70th anniversary of UN (everything was streamed live, go and see on our website) the first stage of our Geneva event will start immediately after. August will be the peak month for preparations in Vienna and Geneva. I secured yesterday Palais des Nations at the heart of Geneva as an alternative venue to the Castle in the outskirts. I am meeting the Secretary General of the Ministry for Health tomorrow. Still in bed with the horrible bronchitis, but will have to go to the concluding session later today. How are you feeling?

What if I used all my slumdweller networks in Africa (about 5,000 slums networked) and relationships with mayors and governments to get free wifi into the slum areas of Africa.

The Internet.org has struggled to move bc they don't have connections and no one really wants Facebook they just want wifi.

I could easily put all the pieces together and I have an idea about how to pay for it
