SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

Case No. 08-80736-Civ-Marra/Johnson

JANE DOE #1 and JANE DOE #2

v.

UNITED STATES

JANE DOE #1 AND JANE DOE #2'S PROTECTIVE MOTION TO COMPEL

COME NOW Jane Doe #1 and Jane Doe #2 (also referred to as "the victims"), by and through undersigned counsel, to file this protective motion to compel.

For the reasons explain in the victims' Response to the Government's Motion to Stay Discovery, the victims move this Court to order the Government to comply with their discovery requests. In particular, after the Court denies the Government's motion to dismiss, the Court should then order the Government to produce within 14 days:

- (1) The Government's initial disclosures pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1);¹
- (2) Answers to all of the victims' requests for admission;
- (3) All documents, correspondence, and other information that the Government distributed to persons or entities outside of the federal Government or received from persons or entities outside of the federal government;² and

¹ The victims made their initial disclosures to the Government more than seven months ago.

² The Government cannot plausible raise any kind of "privilege" argument to non-confidential materials shared with persons or entities outside of the federal government.
