SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

Case No. 9:08-80736-Civ-Marra/Johnson

JANE DOE #1 and JANE DOE #2

NOTICE OF WITHDRAWAL OF JANE DOE NO. 1 AND JANE DOE NO. 2'S MOTION FOR DEPOSITIONS OF GOVERNMENT WITNESSES

COME NOW Jane Doe No. 1 and Jane Doe No. 2 (the "victims"), by and through undersigned counsel, to file this notice that, with the agreement of the Government, they are withdrawing motion for court permission to take the depositions of six important Government witnesses in this action (DE 344). The Government has now responded to the motion (DE 359). After receiving the Government's response, victims' counsel and government counsel have conferred and have jointly agreed that it would be most efficient if the victims withdraw their motion at this time. The withdrawal is without prejudice to victims re-filing their motion, if they believe it is necessary, after the Government responds to the victims' soon-to-be-filed summary judgment motion. This will permit the parties to litigate the issue on the need for depositions based on the matters in dispute once the summary judgment and response thereto have been filed.

CONCLUSION

With the agreement of the Government, the victims are withdrawing their motion for depositions without prejudice to later re-filing.
