Pursuant to IRS Regulations, we inform you that any tax advice contained in this communication (including any attachments) is not intended or written to be used, and cannot be used by any person or entity for the purpose of (i) avoiding tax related penalties imposed by any governmental tax authority or agency, or (ii) promoting, marketing or recommending to another party any transaction or matter discussed herein. We advise you to consult with an independent tax advisor on your particular tax circumstances.

Investment products and services may be available through a relationship managed by U.S. Trust, Bank of America Private Wealth Management, or through a relationship with Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated.

Certain U.S. Trust associates are registered representatives with Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated and may assist you with investment products and services provided through Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated and other subsidiaries of Bank of America Corporation. However, U.S. Trust does not manage investments held at Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated and you must direct your representative to take action on the advice given. Individual transactions you direct will result in your overall portfolio being invested in a manner which may differ from this report. In addition, these materials may discuss various elements of an individual's overall financial profile for which neither U.S. Trust nor Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated serves as an advisor.

Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated is a registered broker-dealer, member FINRA and SIPC, and a wholly owned subsidiary of Bank of America Corporation. Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated does not serve as a tax or legal advisor.

Several products such as mutual funds, variable annuities, and other alternative investments that may be mentioned as an investment alternative for you are only to be sold when preceded or accompanied by a current prospectus and/or offering memoranda. The prospectus and/or offering memoranda provide more complete information on the product, including charges, expenses and special investment risks, and should be read carefully before investing.

The following report is for fiduciary use only. The associate presenting this report to you is acting within his or her fiduciary capacity with U.S. Trust, not within his or her licensed capacity, if any, with Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated.

The information and data in the following report were obtained from sources deemed reliable. Their accuracy and completeness are not guaranteed, and the giving of the same is not deemed an offer or solicitation for the purchase or sale of securities.

This report attempts to measure a particular universe of investments by averaging the performance of all securities in the index. The index may be a useful tool, but is in no way representative of past performance of a particular fund or security, and is not representative of any future performance of any particular investment. Assumptions concerning inflation or tax rates are illustrative purposes only and are not intended to predict economic performance. Any asset or portfolio earnings and/or returns shown or used in this report are not intended to predict nor guarantee the actual results of an investment product. Investors may not invest directly in an index.

This report is a preliminary analysis and not necessarily the tactical fulfillment of recommendations. This material is for illustrative and educational purposes and has been prepared solely to assist you in the review of your investment alternatives. You should consult appropriate legal and/or tax advisors and then contact your representative to take appropriate next steps.

This report does not constitute legal, accounting or expert witness advice. If you choose to follow an investment strategy set forth in the following report(s) repositioning of your portfolio may result in tax consequences. Again, the contents of this presentation should not be acted upon without consulting appropriate legal and/or tax advisors.

All tax calculations herein are merely estimates and should not be relied upon for detailed tax planning purposes. All income taxes are based on flat tax rates and do not take all the details of a state's income tax laws into account.

This analysis is based on the calendar year. All assets and liabilities are valued at the end of each year. Deaths are also assumed to occur at the end of each year. For the first year of the analysis only, annual returns are prorated on a daily basis.

Notes and Assumptions:

- Leon and Debra are presumed to die in 2013 with Leon immediately predeceasing Debra.
- Debra has transferred title to all residences to Leon as sole owner.
- The Overview illustrates the decanting of the Black 2006 Family Trust and the Black Family 1997 Trust to the Heritage Trust.
- Debra's Will and Revocable Trust provisions are presumed to mirror those in Leon's documents.
- Administration expenses are assumed to be $5 million in Leon's estate and are assumed to be 1% of Debra's gross estate.
- Leon selected $200 million of art from his estate for each child's Legacy Trust and $100 million from the Heritage Trust for each child's Legacy Trust.
- Valuation discounts totaling 30% are applied to the value of Black Family Partner, L.P. ("BFP") interests.
- On Leon's death, BFP interests will be used to pay off the Notes to the Heritage Trust and to BFP; the yacht and art will be sold to repay the art loans. Art will be sold on Debra's death to pay estate tax.
- The plane owned by Avionetta will be sold and the proceeds used to repay the loan from Bank of America.
- The Overview does not reflect the split-dollar transaction.
- The provisions of the Leon D. Black Insurance Trust #2 are assumed to be identical to the Leon D. Black Insurance Trust #1 dated September 13, 1999.
- Judy Black was born on September 27, 1948.
- Jon Ressler is assumed to be age 60.
- 100% charitable deduction is assumed for fractional interests in art pledged to museums.

Single "Pot" Trust

A single Heritage Trust is created for Debra and Leon's descendants and four separate Legacy Trusts are created (one for each of Leon's children).

The Trustees may distribute income and principal to Debra and Leon's descendants, subject to the distribution guidelines outlined in the Trust Agreement.

After Leon's death, art and collectibles held in the Heritage Trust designated for a particular child will be distributed to such child's Legacy Trust. After Debra's death, similarly designated items in the Marital Trust will be distributed to a child's Legacy Trust.

After Leon's death the Trustees shall distribute the following to each child's Legacy Trust:

- $10 million when the child attains age 30 (request it is used to acquire a principal residence).
- $50 million when the child attains age 35.
- $100 million when the child attains age 40.
- After Debra's death, selected works of art will pass to each child's Legacy Trust.

If a child dies under age 40, the above amounts will be divided into shares for the child's descendants and each share will be held in a separate Legacy Trust for each such descendant.

Trustees: Barry Cohen, Richard Ressler
 and John Hannan

Separate Legacy Trusts

During the beneficiary's life:

- The Trustee may pay the income and principal to the beneficiary subject to distribution guidelines (the descendant's financial acumen, marital discord, creditor claims, pending litigation, or substance abuse).
- Trustees are authorized to invest in a business venture proposed by the beneficiary, so long as it is a career commitment.
- After age 35, the beneficiary is a co-trustee of his/her Legacy Trust.

At the beneficiary's death:

A child may by Will appoint the remaining Trust property among Leon's descendants and up to $10 million in favor of a spouse. Any property not appointed will be divided in equal shares for the beneficiary's children.

Upon the death of the survivor of Leon and Debra, any property not appointed by Leon at his death will be divided into per stirpital shares for Debra's descendants.

1. Each share for a descendant of Debra will be held in a separate Trust for the lifetime of the beneficiary:
 - The Independent Trustee must distribute income and principal needed for the beneficiary's health, education, support and maintenance.
 - The Independent Trustees also has broad discretion to distribute income and principal to the beneficiary for any purpose.
 - After age 35, the beneficiary may appoint income and principal among Debra's descendants.
2. At the beneficiary's death:
 - The beneficiary's Trust will terminate and will be distributed as the beneficiary appoints. Any property not appointed will be distributed to his/her descendants, subject to the same trust terms.

Trustees: After age 35, a child can be co-Trustee of his/her separate Trust.
