

Dear Tarek,

The owner of the Boeing has agreed to further reduce the price of the aircraft to 4.5 million without DirecTV, however, including all of the other items listed on Exhibit A of our offer dated December 8th, 2011 and attached hereto including four monitors.

I look forward to completing this transaction with you.

Yours Sincerely,

Don Bass

Exhibit A

JEGE, Inc.

Items to completed per buyer's request

#1 third party inspection of aircraft to be completed at Flight Star Maintenance Facility

C2C inspection, flat rate labor $263,778.00, estimate repair items $150,000.00 total $413,778.00

#2 Interior modifications to include, repair wood in cabin, re-cover all of Red fabric, cover 3 extra passenger seats, repair passenger seats for looseness:

-re cover 5 cabin seats: $35,000.00

-re cover red divan in office $16,800.00 without new foam $12,350.00

-fireblock testing of new fabric $2,500.00

-red office bulk head panels $3,200.00

-re cover office table top, NO red $1,140.00

-install extra seat and table in round room, $1,040.00

-install two extra seats in fwd salon and dining room table, $1,040.00

See attachment for complete breakdown of interior items,.

#3 New nose tires $2,500.00

#4 AFIS pilot weather uplink and PDC, pre departure clearance $ 75,000.00

#5 Four TV monitors in Fwd salon, round room, office, and bedroom.

#6 High internet in passenger compartment, satellite based for world coverage $225,000.00