

Falcon 900EX Easy

F-GSNA

14 seats / 6 beds

Manufactured in 2005

Serial Number 145

The Falcon 900EX is the perfect solution for those who require increased autonomy in their business flights. Due to its 4 500 nm range, this jet can cross the Atlantic and can handle direct long-haul flights such as Rome / Johannesburg or London / Calcutta.

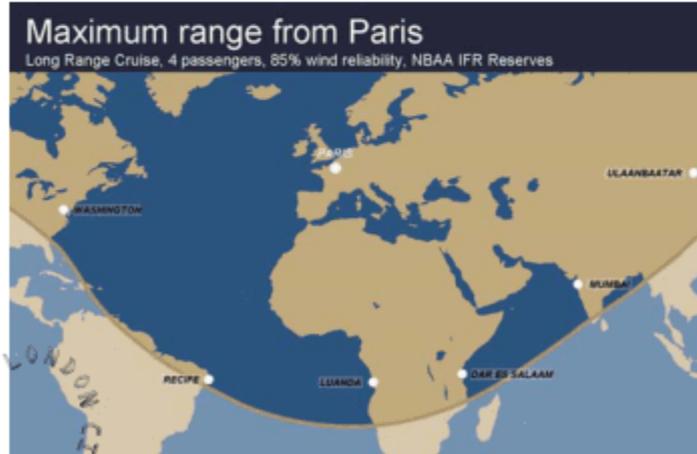

Thanks to its up-to-date, fuel efficient trijet design, the Falcon 900EX can directly reach its cruising height of at least 40 000 feet. This ease of entry into the crowded American or European air traffic is your best guarantee of time efficient private or business travel.
