Re: [REDACTED]

Dear Bob:

I am writing to inform you that your client, [REDACTED], contacted my paralegal, Jessica Cadwell, this afternoon inquiring about two witness fee checks she received from our office more than one year ago. I have reviewed our accounting records and it appears that check #69500 in the amount of $45.00 was issued on 03/12/2010 and check #69965 in the amount of $40.00 was issued on 09/09/2010. Both checks were issued in preparation for the trials of Jane Does 2-7. As you know, those cases subsequently settled; therefore, Ms. [REDACTED] was not needed for trial testimony or for any other trial purpose and is not entitled to payment now, more than a year later.

Please advise your client of the above information and please remind her of the no contact order that remains in effect today. Ms. [REDACTED] should not be contacting Mr. Epstein's attorneys (past or present) or Mr. Epstein directly requesting any additional money outside the scope of what is outlined in the settlement agreement executed back in May of 2009.

Cordially yours,

Robert D. Critton, Jr.
