

THE BLACK 2006 FAMILY TRUST
RELEASE AND INDEMNIFICATION AGREEMENT

Agreement made as of the ____ day of _____, 2013, by and between (1) LEON D. BLACK ("LEON"), JOHN J. HANNAN ("JOHN") and RICHARD RESSLER ("RICHARD"), each individually and as trustee of the BLACK 2006 FAMILY TRUST (the "Trust"), and (2) LEON, DEBRA R. BLACK ("DEBRA"), BENJAMIN BLACK ("BENJAMIN"), JOSHUA BLACK ("JOSHUA"), ALEXANDER BLACK ("ALEXANDER") and VICTORIA BLACK ("VICTORIA"), in their individual capacities as beneficiaries of the Trust (collectively, the "Beneficiaries" and, individually, a "Beneficiary").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS:

1. The Trust was created under article II of the trust agreement dated December 21, 2006 between LEON, as settlor, and LEON and JOHN, as trustees (the "Trust Agreement").
2. RICHARD became an additional trustee of the Trust on February 1, 2008, pursuant to a document appointing him as trustee signed by LEON.
3. LEON, JOHN and RICHARD are the current trustees of the Trust (the "Trustees"). JOHN and RICHARD are the current Independent Trustees (as defined in the Trust Agreement) of the Trust.
4. Subsection (1) of article II(A) of the Trust Agreement requires the Trustees to pay LEON all of the Trust Accounting Income of the Trust each year during LEON's life in such installments as may be convenient to the Trustees (the "Trustees' Distribution Obligation").

5. Subsection (2) of article II(A) of the Trust Agreement provides that the term “Trust Accounting Income” means:

“any distribution received by the Trust with respect to an interest in any of the Relevant Companies held in the Trust to the extent such distribution is derived from the Operating Profits of any such Relevant Company. For purposes of this section, the term “Operating Profits” shall mean net profits for any year without taking into account any items of income, gain, loss or deduction generated or incurred in connection with a transaction constituting a Distribution Event. For purposes of this section, the term ‘Distribution Event’ shall be interpreted broadly, and shall mean an extraordinary transaction (or a series of related transactions) involving any one or more of the Relevant Companies, whether occurring directly or indirectly, that constitutes a sale to, or material investment by, a Third Party Investor, in circumstances in which one or more members or partners of the Relevant Companies receive Distributions (or sales proceeds in respect of their interests) as a result of, or in connection with, such extraordinary transaction (or series of related transactions). For purposes of this section, the term ‘Distributions’ shall mean all distributions made by any Relevant Company to its members or partners, whether in cash, property, dividends or distributions upon the occurrence of a dissolution of such Company or otherwise. For purposes of this section, the term ‘Third Party Investor’ shall mean a Person who is not a private equity professional employed by a Relevant Company and who makes an investment in the Relevant Company in circumstances designed to monetize one or more of the equity interests in any Relevant Company.”

6. Subsection (3) of article II(A) of the Trust Agreement defines the term “Relevant Companies” as all of the following entities, including any of their subsidiaries or successors in interest (whether by way of merger, exchange of interests or otherwise): Apollo Management, ■■■, Apollo Management IV, ■■■, Apollo Management V, ■■■, Apollo Management VI, ■■■, Apollo Investment Management, ■■■, Apollo Value Management, ■■■, Apollo SVF Management, ■■■, Apollo Asia Management, ■■■, Apollo Europe Management, ■■■ and Apollo Alternative Assets, ■■■.

7. LEON is not entitled to receive any distributions from the Trust other than distributions of Trust Accounting Income.

8. Section (B)(2) of article II of the Trust Agreement provides that, during LEON's lifetime, the Trustees shall from time to time pay to or for the benefit of any one or more of the class consisting of (i) LEON's spouse and (ii) LEON's issue living from time to time so much of the net income remaining after the Trustees' Distribution Obligation and the principal of the Trust in such proportions and amounts as the Independent Trustees, in their sole discretion, shall determine.

9. DEBRA is LEON's spouse, and BENJAMIN, JOSHUA, ALEXANDER and VICTORIA are LEON's children.

10. LEON has no issue other than BENJAMIN, JOSHUA, ALEXANDER and VICTORIA.

11. The Trustees have caused to be prepared an accounting (the "Accounting"), a copy of which is attached to this Release and Indemnification Agreement, of all of the transactions pertaining to the administration of the Trust for the period starting from the creation of the Trust until September 30, 2012 (the "Accounting Period").

12. Each year since the inception of the Trust, the Trustees have calculated the Trust Accounting Income for such year and have distributed the amounts so calculated to LEON.

13. During the Accounting Period, as illustrated on Schedule J of the Accounting, the Trustees have paid to LEON what they calculated to be all of the Trust Accounting Income of the Trust for such period of time, totaling Two Hundred Twenty-Three Million Five Hundred Three Thousand One Hundred Seventy-One Dollars ($223,503,171) in the aggregate (the "Distributed Amount").

14. No other distributions have been made from the Trust to LEON or to the other Beneficiaries other than a distribution of One Hundred Twenty Thousand Dollars ($120,000) to BENJAMIN.

15. The Trustees now recognize that their prior calculations of Trust Accounting Income were incorrect as a result of their inclusion of income from companies that are not Relevant Companies.

16. The Trustees have recalculated the Trust Accounting Income earned by the Trust in each year since the inception of the Trust, and have determined that the aggregate amount of the Trust Accounting Income of the Trust during the Accounting Period is Eighty-One Million Seven Hundred Seventy-Six Thousand Nine Hundred Forty-Six Dollars ($81,776,946) (the "Revised Aggregate Trust Accounting Income Amount").

17. As a result of their recalculations, the Trustees now confirm that their distributions to LEON exceeded the amount that he was entitled to receive under article II(A) of the Trust Agreement.

18. The difference between the Distributed Amount and the Revised Aggregate Trust Accounting Income Amount is One Hundred Forty-One Million Seven Hundred Twenty-Six Thousand Two Hundred Twenty-Five Dollars ($141,726,225) (the "Excess Amount").

19. The Independent Trustees have the power under Article VIII of the Trust Agreement to amend the Trust Agreement to terminate the Trustees' Distribution Obligation.

20. The Independent Trustees have been advised that LEON's death at a time when the Trustees' Distribution Obligation is in existence could result in a substantial portion of the assets of the Trust being subject to Federal and New York State estate tax, and that no such estate tax should be imposed if the Trustees' Distribution Obligation is not in existence at the time of LEON's death.

21. The Independent Trustees have satisfied themselves that LEON owns substantial assets outside of his interest in the Trust, including assets attributable to his receipt of the Excess Amount, and no longer has any need to receive future distributions from the Trust and therefore, have decided, in view of the estate tax risk of permitting the Trustees' Distribution Obligation to continue to exist, to amend the Trust Agreement to terminate the Trustees' Distribution Obligation.

22. LEON has agreed that he will not challenge such action in any judicial proceeding provided that the Independent Trustees agree not to exercise whatever rights they may have to require him to return the Excess Amount and to release him from any obligation he might have to return the Excess Amount.

23. The Independent Trustees have determined that it would be prudent to relinquish whatever rights they might have to require LEON to return the Excess Amount and to release him from any obligation he might have to return the Excess Amount in exchange for his agreement not to challenge their decision to amend the Trust Agreement to terminate the Trustees' Distribution Obligation.

24. The Trustees would like to submit the Accounting to an appropriate court in the State of New York and obtain a judicial discharge for their acts and proceedings as Trustees with respect to the administration of the Trust during the Accounting Period and with respect to their decision to amend the Trust Agreement to terminate the Trustees' Distribution Obligation and their decision to release LEON from whatever obligation he has to return the Excess Amount, releasing them from any further liability to all persons interested in the Trust.

25. In order to avoid the expense and delay incident to such a judicial proceeding, the Beneficiaries have expressed their willingness to (i) waive a judicial settlement of the accounts of the Trustees' acts and proceedings as trustees of the Trust, (ii) release and discharge the Trustees of and from any liabilities with respect to the administration of the Trust during the Accounting Period, (iii) release and discharge the Trustees of and from any liabilities with respect to the proposed amendment of the Trust Agreement by the Independent Trustees to eliminate the Trustees' Distribution Obligation and their release of LEON from any obligation to repay the Excess Amount to the Trust, and (iv) upon the terms set forth below, indemnify the Trustees and hold them harmless from and against any cause of action or liability arising from or in connection with the administration of the Trust during the Accounting Period, the proposed amendment of the Trust Agreement by the Independent Trustees to eliminate the Trustees' Distribution Obligation and the proposed release of LEON from any obligation to repay the Excess Amount to the Trust.

26. In addition to providing the Beneficiaries with a copy of the Accounting, the Trustees have afforded the Beneficiaries the opportunity to examine (a) the books and records of all transactions pertaining to the administration of the Trust for the Accounting Period and (b) annual financial statements of Black Family Partners for the years 2006 through 2012, copies of which are attached to this Release and Indemnification Agreement.

27. Article IX of the Trust Agreement permits the Trustees to settle their accounts with respect to the Trust by agreement with each legally competent beneficiary of the Trust and with the guardian of each beneficiary of the Trust who is under a legal disability.

28. None of the Beneficiaries is under a legal disability.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing premises, the parties agree as follows:

I. Amendment of Trust Agreement. Immediately after the execution of this Release and Indemnification Agreement, the Independent Trustees will amend the Trust Agreement to terminate the Trustees' Distribution Obligation.

II. Release of Obligation to Repay Excess Amount. The Trustees hereby release LEON from any obligation to repay the Excess Amount to the Trust.

III. Representations. Each of the Beneficiaries (i) hereby represents that he or she has been afforded an opportunity to examine the Accounting and the books and records of all transactions pertaining to the administration of the Trust during the Accounting Period and to inquire into all the acts, transactions and proceedings of the Trustees during the Accounting Period, and that he or she is satisfied that (a) there is no error or omission in the Accounting, (b) the Accounting is in all respects a true and complete statement of all the acts and proceedings of the Trustees involving the income and principal of the Trust for the Accounting Period and (c) the Trustees have fully and fairly accounted for all monies and other property which came or should have come into their hands as Trustees of the Trust and (ii) hereby ratifies, confirms and approves all of the acts and proceedings of the Trustees in connection with the administration of the Trust during the Accounting Period, and the release of LEON from any obligation to repay the Excess Amount to the Trust. Each of the Beneficiaries, hereby represents that he or she has not sold, assigned, transferred or hypothecated in any manner any interest of his or hers in the Trust.

IV. Release. In consideration of the foregoing and further to induce the Trustees not to have a judicial settlement of an account of their acts and proceedings as trustees of the Trust, each of the Beneficiaries does hereby release, remise and discharge the Trustees, individually and as trustees of the Trust, of and from any and all claims, damages, demands, actions and causes of action, acts, reckonings, liability and accountability he or she might have by reason of the investment management or administration of the Trust or any act or omission, collection or disbursement by the Trustees arising from or in any manner related to the administration of the Trust during the Accounting Period, the amendment of the Trust Agreement by the Independent Trustees to eliminate the Trustees' Distribution Obligation and/or the release of LEON from any obligation to repay the Excess Amount to the Trust, other than, in each case, any act of fraud or willful misconduct.

V. Waiver of Judicial Settlement. Each of the Beneficiaries hereby waives all rights to a judicial settlement of an account of the Trustees' acts and proceedings as trustees of the Trust for the Accounting Period and to the issuance and service of a citation or other process in any proceeding brought for the judicial settlement of said accounts, and does hereby consent that an order, judgment, or decree may be made and entered at any time in any court of competent jurisdiction without notice to him or her, judicially allowing and settling said accounts and releasing and discharging the Trustees, as trustees of the Trust, of and from all liability and accountability in respect of all matters relating to the administration of the Trust for the Accounting Period, the amendment of the Trust Agreement by the Independent Trustees to eliminate the Trustees' Distribution Obligation and the release of LEON from any obligation to repay the Excess Amount to the Trust.

VI. No Further Accounting. Each of the Beneficiaries hereby waives any right (i) to object to the Trustees' actions in connection with the administration of the Trust during the Accounting Period, the amendment of the Trust Agreement by the Independent Trustees to eliminate the Trustees' Distribution Obligation and the release of LEON from any obligation to repay the Excess Amount to the Trust, (ii) to demand or request any form of accounting or any further financial information or data from the Trustees with respect to the administration of the Trust during the Accounting Period, or (iii) to enforce the judicial settlement of any accounting of the Trustees for the Accounting Period.

VII. Binding Effect. Each of the Beneficiaries hereby agrees that the release herein given and granted to the Trustees shall be delivered to and shall be accepted by the Trustees as binding on each of the Beneficiaries in all respects as though an accounting had been rendered in the course of a judicial proceeding and had thereupon been settled and allowed, as presented and filed, by a judgment, decree or order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

VIII. Indemnification by Beneficiaries. Each of the Beneficiaries hereby agrees to indemnify and defend the Trustees, individually and as trustees of the Trust, and to save and hold the Trustees and each of his successors and assigns harmless, from and against any and all claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages and charges of any kind and nature whatsoever that may at any time accrue or be asserted against the Trustees, individually or in their capacities as trustees, by reason of any matter or thing relating to the administration of the Trust during the Accounting Period, the amendment of the Trust Agreement by the Independent Trustees to eliminate the Trustees' Distribution Obligation and the release of LEON from any obligation to repay the Excess Amount to the Trust (but not, in any case, with respect to any claim, demand, liability, loss, damage or charge of any kind or nature asserted against the Trustees as a result of the Trustees' own fraud or willful misconduct) whether or not any such claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages and charges be justly proved, but only, in the case of a Beneficiary other than LEON, if the claims or demands were instituted by such Beneficiary or if such losses, damages or charges resulted from an action brought by such Beneficiary, and to pay any and all such claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages and charges of any kind or nature whatsoever including, without limitation, reasonable fees and disbursements of attorneys, accountants and others, which the Trustees' shall at any time sustain or incur by reason of or in consequence of any such claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages and charges, or the assertion thereof.

IX. Definitions. For the purposes of this Release and Indemnification Agreement, the phrase "claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages and charges" shall include without limitation, (a) the cost of complying with any audit conducted by any taxing authority in connection with the assessment of any taxes, interest and penalties; and (b) the costs to the Trustees of successfully enforcing this Release and Indemnification Agreement. Notwithstanding the provisions of Paragraph VI of this Release and Indemnification Agreement, in the event of any demand for indemnification pursuant to Paragraph VIII of this Release and Indemnification Agreement, the Trustees shall deliver to each person from whom indemnification is demanded, a statement showing the amount and circumstances of the claim, demand, liability, loss, damage and charge for which indemnification is sought.

Trust, and each of the Trustees' heirs, distributees, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns.

XI. New York Law. The provisions hereof shall be interpreted and construed under, and the enforceability of this Release and Indemnification Agreement shall be governed by, the substantive laws of the State of New York (without considering or applying the conflicts of law principles of any state), regardless of the situs of the assets of the Trust, the residence of LEON or any of the Beneficiaries or the location of any of the Trustees at any time or from time to time.

XII. Filing in Court. This Release and Indemnification Agreement may be filed in any court of competent jurisdiction without further notice to any party hereto.

XIII. Counterparts. This Release and Indemnification Agreement may be signed in any number of counterparts with the same effect as if the signatures of all of the parties on all of the counterparts were on the same instrument.

XIV. Titles. The titles of section headings contained in this Release and Indemnification Agreement are included solely for purposes of identification, and are not to be used to construe any provision contained in this Release and Indemnification Agreement or for any other reason.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned have signed this Release and Indemnification Agreement as of the date set forth on page 1.
