Dear Sirs,

Our Client: Jeffrey Epstein
Your Client: Tatler Publishing

We refer to your letter dated 10th May.

While certainly not seeking to condone our client's actions, for which he has served his time, we would nonetheless take issue with your assertion that the description of "paedophile" extends to the procurement of a seventeen and a half year old girl for prostitution. Again, without attempting to justify what was deemed a crime in the State of Florida, this cannot be classified as "paedophilia" on any view.

Accordingly, not only was this reference to our client inaccurate and defamatory, but the damage has been exacerbated by your equally defamatory innuendoes in relation to his financial background.

Our client has no particular wish to become engaged in litigation with your client, but he does require to have the record set straight as a matter of some urgency. You should know that we have also put on notice a number of the other publications to which you refer in your correspondence.

We would therefore invite your client to reconsider their position and revert to us by return.
