Notes

Price includes estimated charges and taxes for the flight itinerary listed above. Any positioning legs flown to accommodate the trip will be flown at the discretion of MAC and there is no obligation to neither disclose any details about any legs other than the occupied nor make these positioning legs available to the charterer for occupancy. Additional flight time charges may be incurred in the event of weather avoidance, holding, and ATC routing changes. A two hour minimum flight charge per day applies to all trips. Quote does not include after-hours airport operation fees, parking fees, aircraft de-icing or hangar-related expenses due to ice or inclement weather, catering, flight phone, client special requests, or itinerary change. Should any part of this itinerary change the trip will be re quoted. Certain 3rd party charges may incur a 10% service fee. Additional charges may not be included with original invoice and may be billed at a later time. Upon acceptance of terms of this agreement Meridian Air Charter may begin incurring expenses and making arrangements for the completion of the trip, which client shall be responsible for. For more info, refer to Meridian's Master Terms and Conditions.
