

Newton Bar ←

Named after the late, lamented photographer Helmut Newton – his enormous photograph of naked amazons in high heels hangs on the main wall – the Newton is a classic bar with a gentleman's-club feel. The updated art deco interior, with lots of dark, polished-wood panelling and overstuffed oxblood-leather armchairs, was executed by Berlin architect Hans Kollhoff. The upstairs cigar lounge is a great place to hire for private parties. Charlottenstrasse 57, T 2061 2999, www.newton-bar.de