Eisenstein, Dr. Warren

Dr. Warren Eisenstein of Richardson, TX passed away February 27, 2014 at the age of 61. Born on April 25, 1952 in Brooklyn, N.Y. to parents Lenny and Rivka Eisenstein, Warren was and always will be a true New Yorker, or more specifically a true Sea Gater. Warren had a passion for food, wine, travel, music, his friends and his patients. No one could cook a meal, play the blues or perform an eye exam like he could.

He left the group, making good on a promise to his parents that he would pursue music for just one year then continue his education. He graduated from the University of Kansas, then went on to attend the Southern College of Optometry in Memphis, where he earned his Doctorate of Optometry and met his bride-to-be, Linda.

After graduation, Warren and Linda moved to Dallas where he began a long and rewarding career as an optometrist, practicing in Richardson. He will always be remembered by his friends as one of the most creative and funniest people ever. His wit and ability to mimic anyone was amazing. He could also play a guitar and sing like few others could. On most weekends, He could be found jamming in Dallas area clubs until his illness prevented him from doing so. He was also the most disciplined, responsible, and
