The Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a consistent basis throughout the periods indicated, except that the Financial Statements may not contain all footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles. The Financial Statements fairly present the financial condition and operating results of the Company as of the dates, and for the periods, indicated therein, subject to normal year-end audit adjustments. 3.13 Offering. Subject to the truth and accuracy of each Purchaser's representations set forth in this Agreement, the offer, sale and issuance of the Shares and Conversion Shares as contemplated by this Agreement are exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, and from the qualification requirements of the California Corporate Securities Law of 1968, as amended.

3.14 Compliance with Other Instruments.

(a) The Company is not in any violation of or default under any term of the Restated Articles or its Bylaws. The Company is not in violation of, or default under any provision of any instrument, mortgage, deed of trust, loan, contract, commitment, judgment, decree, order or obligation to which it is a party or by which it or any of its properties are bound, which violations or defaults, individually or in the aggregate, would reasonably be expected to materially adversely affect the business, properties or condition (financial or otherwise) of the Company. 3.15 Employees and Independent Contractors.

(a) Other than indicated on the Schedule of Exceptions, the Company is not a party to or bound by any currently effective employment contract, deferred compensation arrangement, bonus plan, incentive plan, profit sharing plan, retirement agreement or other employee compensation plan or agreement.

(b) To the Company's knowledge, no employee or independent contractor of the Company is obligated under any contract (including licenses, covenants or commitments of any nature) or other agreement, or subject to any judgment, decree or order of any court or administrative agency, that would interfere with the use of such employee's or independent contractor's best efforts to promote the Company's business as now conducted and as currently proposed to be conducted. The Company has not received any written notice alleging that a violation of any such contract or other agreement has occurred.

(c) Neither the execution or delivery of this Agreement, nor the carrying on of the Company's business by the employees and independent contractors of the Company, nor the conduct of the Company's business as now conducted, will, to the Company's knowledge, conflict with or result in a material breach of the terms, conditions, or provisions of, or constitute a material default under, any contract, covenant or instrument under which any such employee or independent contractor is now obligated.

(d) The Company is not aware that any officer, key employee or group of employees intends to terminate his, her or their employment with the Company, nor does the Company have a present intention to terminate the employment of any officer, key employee or group of employees.

To the Company's knowledge, none of the Company's shareholders, key employees, officers or directors or any members of their immediate families are, directly or indirectly, interested in any material contract with the Company (other than such contracts as relate to any such person's ownership of capital stock or other securities of the Company).

3.18 Tax Matters. The Company has filed all federal and California income tax returns and reports as required by law. These returns and reports are true and correct in all material respects, provided, however that the Company makes no representation or warranty as to the amount or availability of any net operating loss or other carryovers. The Company has paid all taxes shown to be due on such returns, and has reserved on its books an amount sufficient for all other material taxes due through the date of its most recent financial statements. The Company has not elected pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), to be treated as a Subchapter S corporation or a collapsible corporation pursuant to Section 1362(a) or Section 341(f) of the Code, nor has it made any other elections pursuant to the Code (other than elections that relate solely to methods of accounting, depreciation or amortization) that would have a material effect on the business, properties or condition (financial or otherwise) of the Company. None of the Company’s tax returns have ever been or are currently being audited by any governmental authorities.

The copy of the minute books of the Company made available to the Purchasers’ counsel contains true and correct minutes of all meetings of directors (including any committees thereof) and shareholders and all actions by written consent taken without a meeting by the directors and shareholders since the date of incorporation.

3.22 Disclosures. The Company has provided each Investor with all the information reasonably available to it without undue expense that such Investor has requested in connection with such Investor’s decision whether to purchase the Shares. To the Company’s knowledge, neither this Agreement and the Related Agreements nor any other documents or certificates delivered in connection herewith, when taken as a whole, contains any untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary to make the statements contained herein or therein not misleading in light of the circumstances under which they were made; provided however, that any projections, forecasts and forward-looking statements of the Company (“Projections”) are based only on estimates (financial or otherwise) and other assumptions (financial or otherwise) that the Company believed to be reasonable as of the date of delivery and there can be no assurance that such Projections will prove accurate or that the actual results (financial or otherwise) achieved by the Company during the periods covered by the Projections will not vary significantly from the projections, forecasts and forward-looking statements, and there can be no assurance that such variations will not result in a material adverse effect on the business, operations and financial conditions of the Company; provided, however, that information known to the Company as of the Initial Closing that would be reasonably likely have such a material adverse effect has been disclosed to the Purchasers. The Company makes no representation or warranty as to its future revenues, sales, earnings, expenses or financial results.

4. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF PURCHASERS.

Each Purchaser hereby represents and warrants to the Company, severally and not jointly, as follows (provided that such representations and warranties do not lessen or obviate the representations and warranties of the Company set forth in this Agreement):

4.1 Requisite Power and Authority. Purchaser has all necessary power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and the Related Agreements and to carry out their provisions. All action on Purchaser's part required for the lawful execution and delivery of this Agreement and the Related Agreements has been taken. Upon their execution and delivery, this Agreement and the Related Agreements will be valid and binding obligations of Purchaser, enforceable in accordance with their terms, except (i) as limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other laws of general application affecting enforcement of creditors' rights, (ii) as limited by general principles of equity that restrict the availability of equitable remedies, and (iii) to the extent that the enforceability of the indemnification provisions of the Investor Rights Agreement may be limited by applicable laws.

4.2 Investment Representations. Purchaser understands that neither the Shares nor the Conversion Shares have been registered under the Securities Act. Purchaser also understands that the Shares are being offered and sold pursuant to an exemption from registration contained in the Securities Act based in part upon Purchaser's representations contained in the Agreement. Purchaser hereby represents and warrants as follows:

(a) Purchaser Bears Economic Risk. Purchaser has substantial experience in evaluating and investing in private placement transactions of securities in companies similar to the Company so that it is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of its investment in the Company and has the capacity to protect its own interests. Purchaser must bear the economic risk of this investment indefinitely unless the Shares (or the Conversion Shares) are registered pursuant to the Securities Act, or an exemption from registration is available. Purchaser understands that the Company has no present intention of registering the Shares, the Conversion Shares or any shares of its Common Stock.
