RE: Representation of Jeffrey Epstein
Matter No. 80743

Dear Mr. Epstein:

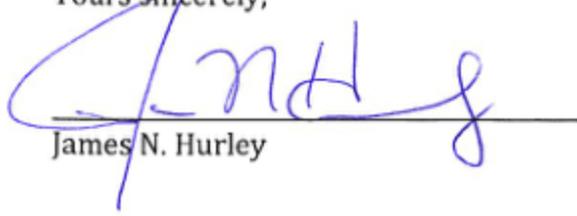

As you may be aware, Lilly Ann Sanchez, has provided notice of her intended resignation from the Firm on or about March 1st, 2012. While practicing with our Firm, Ms. Sanchez has handled and/or been responsible for the above referenced-matter. Ms. Sanchez is both willing and desirous of continuing your representation at her new firm, while at the same time Fowler, White, Burnett is both willing and desirous of doing likewise with appropriate personnel within the Firm. The choice of your continued representation is entirely that of yours which includes (1) transferring the files to Ms. Sanchez, (2) continuing with the Firm's representation, or (3) transferring the file to a third attorney. Both of us would appreciate your instructions with respect to your continued representation at your earliest convenience. Should you have any questions concerning the same, you're at liberty to call the undersigned on behalf of the Firm or Ms. Sanchez directly. Please complete and return to us the attached sheet.

Should you choose to remove these files from the Firm, we will bill you promptly for all outstanding services and costs including reasonable costs for copying any portion of the file for new counsel and assure you of our cooperation with respect to transfer such responsibility. The files will be transferred upon payment of the outstanding fees and costs.

Both Ms. Sanchez and the Firm appreciate your past confidence with respect to your representation and assure you of our continued cooperation with respect to any decision required in the future.

Lilly Ann Sanchez

Yours sincerely,

James N. Hurley
