Dear Roy:

This letter, when accepted by you below on behalf of Jeffrey Epstein (the "Client") and accepted by Black, Srebnick, Kornspan & Stumpf ("Attorney"), will constitute the agreement with respect to the engagement of Sitrick And Company Inc., a California corporation ("Sitrick") as corporate communications advisor, specialist and non-designated expert consultant, with respect to any legal issues Attorney is handling for Client on the following terms and conditions:

1. The Client and Attorney, effective as of October 21, 2005, have retained Sitrick to provide advice and public relations services in connection with legal issues it is handling.
2. Sitrick will waive its customary non-refundable retainer of $60,000 as a minimum, annual fee. In lieu thereof, Company shall pay Sitrick a non-refundable retainer of $30,000 as a minimum, annual fee. Sitrick's time charges will be billed against the retainer at the hourly rate range of $165 to $650 depending on the person performing the services; paraprofessional/assistant time is billed at $55.00 per hour. When the retainer has been applied against time charges, additional time charges in any year will be billed as incurred and are payable within twenty days after receipt. Charges are computed on a portal-to-portal basis for any travel time for meetings held outside of Sitrick's offices. Time is billed by Sitrick in increments of one-quarter of an hour.

In addition, we customarily request a "success fee" if we believe we have performed services for a client which result in significant benefits to the client beyond those we believe a normal public relations firm could achieve. Obviously, we would sit down and discuss any such proposed fee with you if we believe it is warranted, as such fee would be subject to your approval.

Please review our bills each month upon receipt. If you have any questions, please feel free to call. However, unless you make some protest to Sitrick in writing within twenty days of receipt of the bill, it will be presumed you have no objections to it and agree to the reasonableness of the bill.

3. The Client shall reimburse Sitrick within twenty days of invoice date for any and all out of pocket costs and expenses incurred by Sitrick in connection with its engagement hereunder, including without limitation, travel costs, production costs, long distance and photocopy charges, and other out-of-pocket costs and expenses. Reimbursable costs are not applied against the retainer and will be billed monthly by Sitrick.

4. Sitrick acknowledges that its services being provided pursuant to this letter agreement are for the benefit of Client and that Attorney, as Client's counsel, shall not be responsible for any fees, costs or expenses incurred in connection with Sitrick's services.
5. Sitrick And Company's engagement hereunder may be terminated by either party on 30 days prior written notice. All the provisions of this letter contained in paragraphs 4, 5, 6 and 7 will survive for a period of two years following the date of any termination of the engagement by either party.
6. In the event any employee of Sitrick, at any time is required or requested to participate or provide testimony, documents or other evidence in any action, arbitration or other proceeding relating, directly or indirectly, to our engagement, whether or not our engagement has been terminated, the Client shall pay Sitrick for the time spent in preparing for and providing such participation or testimony, at Sitrick's then standard billing rates, and for any costs and expenses, including attorneys fees, incurred in connection therewith.
7. Client agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Sitrick, its shareholders, officers, directors, employees and agents (each such entity or person being referred to as an "Indemnified Person") from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities, costs and expenses (including, but not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees) which any Indemnified Person may be subject to or incur in connection with the services rendered by Sitrick to Client and/or Attorney. This paragraph shall not apply to any such losses, claims, damages, liabilities, costs or expenses of any Indemnified Person that are judicially determined to have resulted from Sitrick's or such other Indemnified Person's gross negligence or willful misconduct.
8. Each of the parties hereto agrees to keep this letter agreement, and the terms and conditions hereof, including billing statements and time sheets, strictly confidential, except only as may be necessary to enforce this letter. All communications, correspondence, instruments and writings between Sitrick and Attorney shall be deemed to constitute attorney work-product and otherwise protected by the attorney-client privilege. Each of the parties agrees not to solicit for employment, nor employ, any employee of the other during the pending of Sitrick's engagement and for a period of two years thereafter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR HANDLING UNLIMITED CIVIL CASES

The following critical provisions of the Chapter Three Rules, as applicable in the Central District, are summarized for your assistance.

APPLICATION

The Chapter Three Rules were effective January 1, 1994. They apply to all general civil cases.

PRIORITY OVER OTHER RULES

The Chapter Three Rules shall have priority over all other Local Rules to the extent the others are inconsistent.

CHALLENGE TO ASSIGNED JUDGE

A challenge under Code of Civil Procedure section 170.6 must be made within 15 days after notice of assignment for all purposes to a judge, or if a party has not yet appeared, within 15 days of the first appearance.

TIME STANDARDS

Cases assigned to the Individual Calendaring Court will be subject to processing under the following time standards:

COMPLAINTS: All complaints shall be served within 60 days of filing and proof of service shall be filed within 90 days of filing.

CROSS-COMPLAINTS: Without leave of court first being obtained, no cross-complaint may be filed by any party after their answer is filed. Cross-complaints shall be served within 30 days of the filing date and a proof of service filed within 60 days of the filing date.

A Status Conference will be scheduled by the assigned Independent Calendar Judge no later than 270 days after the filing of the complaint. Counsel must be fully prepared to discuss the following issues: alternative dispute resolution, bifurcation, settlement, trial date, and expert witnesses.

FINAL STATUS CONFERENCE

The Court will require the parties at a status conference not more than 10 days before the trial to have timely filed and served all motions in limine, bifurcation motions, statements of major evidentiary issues, dispositive motions, requested jury instructions, and special jury instructions and special jury verdicts. These matters may be heard and resolved at this conference. At least 5 days before this conference, counsel must also have exchanged lists of exhibits and witnesses and have submitted to the court a brief statement of the case to be read to the jury panel as required by Chapter Eight of the Los Angeles Superior Court Rules.

SANCTIONS

The court will impose appropriate sanctions for the failure or refusal to comply with Chapter Three Rules, orders made by the Court, and time standards or deadlines established by the Court or by the Chapter Three Rules. Such sanctions may be on a party or if appropriate on counsel for the party.

This is not a complete delineation of the Chapter Three Rules, and adherence only to the above provisions is therefore not a guarantee against the imposition of sanctions under Trial Court Delay Reduction. Careful reading and compliance with the actual Chapter Rules is absolutely imperative.
