Construction/Coverage Deadline Notification

"Additional FCC application required to be filed or WQUT489 will be terminated"

Dear BRICE M GORDON;

The Federal Communications Commission has instituted the termination of those licenses that fail to meet construction or coverage requirements. This is an automated feature within the FCC's Universal Licensing system and which took effect on February 1, 2006. Our review of the FCC database shows that you have not yet filed your Construction/Notification and therefore call sign WQUT489 and frequencies associated with that call sign is subject to termination. This filing is the Construction/Coverage Notification.

FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH THIS FCC REGULATION WILL CAUSE YOUR LICENSE TO BE AUTOMATICALLY TERMINATED, IN WHOLE OR IN PART (WHERE APPLICABLE) ON THE CONSTRUCTION/COVERAGE DEADLINE DATE. SEE 47 CFR SECTION 1.946© AVAILABLE UPON REQUEST.

Your license was issued on 20141006 with a Construction/Coverage deadline date of 20160406 under call sign WQUT489. Once again, failure to file the appropriate application of notification could cause your license to be automatically terminated. You are required to file an additional application (Construction/Notification) with the FCC verifying that you are using the frequencies that were granted to you. Regardless of your expiration date this Construction/Notification must be filed to keep your license active. If you are now using the frequencies associated with this call sign we recommend initiating this filing as soon as possible. If you are filing application past deadline date, additional FCC waiver fees may be assessed.
