I took this girl to Brazil w me and when we got back to NY she saw a text I wrote to another girl (explicit). She refuses to talk to me now. I want to do smth to try to make it up to her. Is there anyone you know in the fashion industry, designer, photographer, etc. that would do you a favor and use her? Even a quick test shooting w a well known photographer would be ok. She's w NY Models. Anything you could think of would be greatly appreciated, I really like this girl!
