 This Week on Kickstarter

April 18, 2013

This week we're excited to introduce Video Mode, a new way to discover amazing projects. Jump in and start watching! When we're not shuffling through rad videos, we're trying to figure out who the greatest band of all time is. Do you know?

 The Greatest Band Ever Print

Timeless debate

The Beatles? The Stones? Hootie & the Blowfish? Who's the greatest band of all time? You decide! With this graphic design project, every vote is a dollar, and every band that gets at least 1% of the vote will be represented on the print. The band with the most votes is, you guessed it, the greatest band ever!

by Jane Burns

 Category Tabletop Games

 Location Bellingham, WA

Singular sensation

Jane Burns is bringing the classic matching game Old Maid into the 21st century. The concept is simple: instead of losing out when you end up with the matchless old maid card, the player left with the "Bold Maid" wins the whole game.

Bright future

When two Kickstarter creators link up for a new collaboration, we can't help but take notice. Case in point, Revolights and Mission Bikes, who've teamed up to create the ultimate commuter bike. Biking home from work has never been this fun (and safe!).
