hi jeffrey,

..i tried to reproduce in photoshop the goldleaf but it is complicate to do it. the goldleaf has reflections and i cannot do that effect in computer. you can see the first picture attached..

maybe better do the samples directly on the wall in a corner., put the goldleaf on molding and the pinkish venetian plaster on the wall., or same if using crayon chalk., and if we don't like we can easily cover that with paint..

in the picture you've sent me, everything, except the painting, looks like marble or faux marble .. should i try sample on the wall or wait for you..maybe you are coming tomorrow?

thank you,
ion
