 Levine For Mayor

Dear Friends & Neighbors,

Thanks to your support and effort, our campaign momentum to take back Miami Beach has never been stronger.

This past week we received direct proof of this. My main opponent, Commissioner Gongora, has chosen to take the path of desperation and unleash his special interest-funded attack machine against me. This includes the non-transparent, politically biased blasts sent by the blog CityDebate.com.

Today, an article in the Miami New Times aptly illustrates the extent and nature of the nefarious structure of Gongora's non-transparent and dirty tricks. Visit the link below.

Political organizations and PACs are a free-speech reality today in our political discourse, at the national, state, and local levels. When I filed to be a candidate for Mayor, I understood and accepted their role and existence. However, information sent to voters must be truthful and documented, AND the groups must be transparent and report their donations and expenditures for public view and scrutiny. Clearly, Gongora's campaign fails on all of these levels. It is truly shameful, but not surprising based on his history and record.

In the coming weeks, my campaign will directly communicate to Miami Beach voters the truth, reveal the misleading nature of the attacks against me, and set the record straight.

Remember that vote-by-mail activity will begin during the week of October 14th.

In the meantime, I continue to knock on doors, hold friend raisers, communicate my message for a new city government, and share my plan to set things right and make things work again in our city.

With your continued help and support, together we will realize victory and new leadership!

Thank you,

Philip
