Greetings Mr. Epstein and Ken,

Ken, you should have received yesterday photos of the basket taken earlier this month. Attached are the photos that were taken yesterday during the walk.

Respectfully,

Daphne

Do you want me to order larger material for you? The plants are above average size for the size pots. If larger plants are what you want I can bring in up to 200 gallon plants- full, instant and mature.

no there is nothing of height except my original and now awkwardly spaced palms, it looks terrible he said the ficus in the back would take two years to grow to a decent height. and there is nothing but low boughevilla

I'm not quite sure what he means. It should look beautiful the day its planted and mulched. Perhaps 2 years until everything is being maintained at its mature height would be more accurate, in my opinion.

I think it was pretty strange yesterday to hear chris tell us that their plan for the basket would take TWO YEARS to look good.
