Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you so much for your email, and please forgive my delayed reply. I am in Santorini Greece with a terrible wifi connection, so I'm just hoping this goes through to you.

This sounds like an amazing opportunity, I've learned, and I'm sure Jeffrey would agree, a great Executive Assistant is really about finding the perfect fit. I would be delighted to meet with him and hear more about the job. For your convenience, I've attached my resume and would be happy to submit a formal application with a cover letter and references. Please let me know if you have any questions, and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Warm regards,
Katharine
