Jeffrey,

I'm sorry if I said something wrong to you and I apologize for this. I would like to speak to you but since you don't want to, I write you this letter.

This morning when I spoke to you I made a tremendous mistake by letting me influence by the press and what people said about you. I realized it was completely nonsense since I gave you all my trust from the beginning as you did as well and understood you were the only person who really cared about me by giving me real happiness. You gave me so much and I gave you so little...

So please if there is anything I could do for you to make you happy let me know... I would really appreciate it. Remember I will always be sincere with you and what I told you in my previous letter I meant it from the bottom of my heart. I hope that by reading this letter you will understand how much I care about you and how much I LOVE YOU ♡
