Metal Plating

I do not agree with Larry's assessment for metal plating.

Our pricing should not come as a surprise. As a matter of fact, we provided budgetary pricing to you back in 2011' and 2012'. Our pricing falls right in line.

Our original proposal pricing was [REDACTED]. When you upgraded the finish, the increase was [REDACTED] for a total of [REDACTED].

I have provided 2 years advanced notice of pricing along with 6 proposals and we are now half way through this project.

ESTIMATED PRICE	DATE	DESCRIPTION
-----------------	------	-------------

[REDACTED]	[REDACTED]	[REDACTED]
------------	------------	------------

UPGRADED FROM BRUSHED NICKEL OR EQUAL FINISH TO PEARLITE SILVER FINISH

[REDACTED]	[REDACTED]	[REDACTED]
------------	------------	------------

For the sake of appreciation for the lesson you are teaching me, I will agree to take [REDACTED] off of the metal plating option.

[REDACTED]

Entertainment System

The reason that it has taken this long on the entertainment system is that we have explored every possible option and revisited some of these more than twice.

I have revisited my estimate. I believe my labor hours are in line as well as the costs for engineering and certification. The equipment is straight forward and the smallest part of the equation by percentage basis.

As a gesture of good faith and sheer exhaustion on the subject, I will agree to take [REDACTED] of the entertainment system option.

[REDACTED]
------------

Lastly, I will agree to write off the [REDACTED] that Air Ghislaine has owed us since February 19th, 2010.

Jeffrey, I always want our relationship to be strong and I am confident that I am being very fair. Can we now move forward?
