Meeting with the hedge fund's candidates was sobering: in their deal, we're a footnote. But I think we'll have options & won't have to go that way. At any rate, attached is straightforward, not manic, 1200 words. Hope we can talk about it.

If yr still moving west, you must be in Mongolia by now..... Enjoy the yurts & the goats & those fetching Mongolian maidens. Thanks a lot--

David

It's beautiful, & universal. (And "A year to learn the language"--another Shaw story, about a virginal American in Paris--another masterpiece.)

Paris fragrance, of course! But seems to me that any Paris group of spring girls is perfumed, just not as vividly as the golden-hearted whores. (Have you read Irving Shaw's masterpiece "The Girls in their Summer Dresses"?)

Great. Will get the stuff (not much) out to you later today. (Strolling down the right bank w/ gold dome of the Institut right across the river, medieval spires of the cite in front of you, Louvre to the left & the great nose of the city straight ahead, with French girls dressed & behaving like actual females everywhere, & the occasional Aston or Alfa or Lambo or Zonda streaking past: perfection.)

How about if I mail you a stripped-down what-centered version of today's spiel--a couple of pages--& than phone any time you can manage? (I can do w/o the Carrib, but I wish I were in Paris.) --David

Now I feel a lot better. How about if Lou Nemeth & I showed up in Manhattan some AM this or next week (or whatever time is good) & ran through the presentation? Could be brief. (Lou is the manager-type guy, except much smarter.)

Current owners of our IP have suddenly decided they're going to win the apple appeal. & even if they don't, other cases downstream are even bigger (far bigger), & even if they don't do that, the company itself will be worth money--bolt from the blue!--so they want to be in charge of my & Eric's new activity streams company or revived Mirror Worlds Tech; but for many reasons we want to be independent--but we can't upset Plainfield--& so are entertaining one of their potential investors at 10 this AM.

Doing this new-company stuff is a waste of my time--I do it badly, & meanwhile am not doing other things I do well; just like grading this damned pile of final papers (haven't even started). But for now I've got to do it. If we could just get funded & get to work.....

Hope I get to talk to you any AM anytime between tmw & the coming of the Messiah.

David
