TRANSPORTATION

The Times Square Hotel is easily accessible from large concentrations of office and commercial space in the Midtown district of Manhattan. Midtown Manhattan is indisputably the busiest single commercial district in the United States, and is among the most intensely and diversely used pieces of real estate in the world. More than 700,000 commuters work in its offices, hotels, and retail establishments; the area is also a popular destination for tourists, visiting residents, and students.

1 PORT AUTHORITY BUS TERMINAL

The Port Authority Bus Terminal is located at West 42nd Street and Eighth Avenue. It provides bus service to locations outside of Manhattan. The terminal is the largest and busiest bus station in the country, serving over 200,000 people every day.

2 TIMES SQUARE SUBWAY

Times Square station is a highly trafficked subway hub including connections to 12 different subway lines: the A, C, E lines, the N, E, Q and W lines and the 1, 2, 3, 7, and 9 lines, as well as the shuttle to Grand Central train station.

3 PENN STATION

Penn Station is the major intercity train station and a major commuter rail hub in New York City. Serving 600,000 passengers a day at a rate of up to 1,000 per 90 seconds, it is the busiest passenger transportation facility in the US and the busiest train station in North America.

4 GRAND CENTRAL STATION

Grand Central Station is the largest train station in the world by number of platforms. They are on two levels, both below ground, with 41 tracks on the upper level and 20 on the lower, though the total number of tracks along platforms and in rail yards exceeds 100. The terminal covers an area of 48 acres.
