Good afternoon,

We have yet another horse injury on the Ranch. Max has managed severely cut his cornea, this happened late Tues night, but I held off any details until the the Vet had reviewed all the information.

His eye is very swollen, please note attached photo. It is still unclear if he will loss his sight or possible the eyeball will need to be removed. He is calm on plenty of meds and it is now a waiting game. The Vet will be back on sight this evening. I will keep you posted on all developments

Warmest regards

Karen
