Hi Jeff,

Here are some photos of my apt. I forgot to photograph the kitchen. It must have been unconscious because I'm trying hard to put it out of my mind. I just got an estimate for the renovation that's so insanely high, I'm putting the whole idea on a back burner. It turns out that there is only one electrical outlet in the kitchen and it is inside the cupboard that's above the stove. Who would have thunk? Other than that I still love the location and the building is very clean and the staff is friendly.

Love,
