Dear Lesley,

The weather is not so nice today but I hope you are having a great day;)

I need your help again.

I went to doctor Victor's office on Wed. They did second time hair removal for me(I still have to go more) because the machine has been fixed and also they gave me my new prescription for next month treatment of Claravis.

This time doctor gave me for 60mg. Compare previous month it was 40mg.

So, at this time his assistant gave me two prescriptions one for 20mg and the other one for 40mg. She said that it will be cheaper to buy.

So, it means I need to ask Jeff to help me to buy my new peels in the next 3 days because I have only 3 left peels more.

It means for 20mg it's about 280$ and for 40mg is about 350$. So, it's more expensive at this time.

Could you help me, please? Can you ask Jeffery? I'll be very happy to get your answer as soon as possible.

Also, he mentioned that maybe I'll see him this week;)

Hope to hear from you soon;)

Polina
