Hi Jeffrey,

My articles appear on Google's 1st page but they don't always stay. Google News is fine: my articles cover the entire 1st page, so I'll just keep submitting content.

I don't think Integrity Defender is showing enough progress however.

I'd like to deduct the fee that you paid for them ($2149) from my next wire. You shouldn't have to pay for it.

There is another, much larger group called www.reputationchanger.com They are ranked in first position by TopSeo's, and have stellar reviews from The Wall St. Journal, CNN etc. They have more than $10Mil in revenues, a much larger staff and handle mug shot removal issues.

They have agreed to take you on, if you are still willing. Attached is a personalized pitch. Your profile of course will be confidential.

Their fee is quite high: $7,500 for the first month and $5,000 per month afterwards. Most of the work is done in the first month however. If we don't see results in two months, we could stop.

In the meantime, I will keep putting out content. Am determined to get this job done.

Thank you for your thoughts and I hope you are well,
