Perspectives and opportunities for unconventional times Wednesday, May 23, 2012 at 11:00 a.m. Eastern Time

Hosted by

Richard Madigan, Chief Investment Officer, J.P. Morgan Private Bank

Featuring

Phil Conway, U.S. Head of Capital Advisory and U.S. Southeast Regional Head

David Frame, Global Head of Alternative Investments

Stephen Jury, Global Head of Currencies and Commodities

Meg McClellan, U.S. Head of Fixed Income

Steven Rees, Head of U.S. Equity Strategy

The first few months of 2012 have revealed very different paths for global markets. As the year continues to unfold, positioning portfolios to withstand volatility and capitalize on fast-moving opportunities is increasingly important for our clients.

Join us for an exclusive chance to hear Richard and the team discuss the outlook for world markets, plus their views on:

- The growth opportunities we're identifying across asset classes
- Where we see value in equities, as well as the search for yield in 2012
- How alternatives are targeting investments not generally available through public markets
- What's next for currencies and commodities
