Will science ever make it possible to bring back the dead?

3 Mike Garrow, All that will ever be has been

The answer to the question is dependent on the definition of the term "dead". People are revived daily from conditions that would have been considered "dead" even 50 years

What's it like to come from a billion-dollar family?

228 John H. Hillman, V, sorry about the Roman numeral.

I was asked to answer this by someone anonymous. Normally I would not, but I spent some days thinking about it. Gotta love Quora...

In my case it is pretty normal. To be c... Read More »

How did you survive your most brutal heartbreak?

86 Anon User

My wife left me for the married neighbor across the street. I was still very much in love at the time, and it was, to put it mildly, heartbreak.

Before she left me, she ad... Read More »

How would you explain it to a 5-year old why higher taxes on the rich doesn't fix everything?

97 Matt Dotson, Fascinated by economics

So say that your 5 year old can make money by doing things around the house.

$5 for making their bed

$5 for putting away their toys... Read More »

If I want to look well-read and in the know, what do I need to know about the Higgs Boson Discovery & Announcement (July 2012)?

298 Jay Wacker, Faculty at Stanford/SLAC in theoreti...

You can take a few bullet points from the following list of facts

- The Higgs is a fundamentally new type of elementary particle that we have never seen before.
- Up until now, ...

What does Jimmy Wales think when a university professor states not to use Wikipedia as a source?

401 Jimmy Wales, Wikipedia founder and Wikia cofounder

What I think depends on the details of what the Professor is recommending. If the recommendation is to not use Wikipedia at all, I think that's silly and naive advice - al... Read More »

Will Facebook generate more revenue than Google?

91 Mark Rogowsky, Entrepreneur, raconteur, @maxrogo
Absolutely no time soon.

And because this question is explicitly asking about revenue, the answer is almost certainly never. Why? Well consider first some critical data fr... Read More »

What makes the Spanish national football team so dominant right now?

115 Hung Lee, Recruitment Strategist

They have invented a new way of playing the game.

Tiki-taka isn't just a pleasing-to-the-eye brand of attacking football, it is so radical an evolution of the possession g... Read More »
