Hey Jee,

What do George Washington, James Cook & convicts have in common?

Well...George Washington was one of the founders of the United States.

Sir James Cook was one of the first cited founders of Australia.

And English convicts were the unofficial, unsung founders of Australia!

That's right, Dimension5 - our brand spankin' new co-working space in South Melbourne, in partnership with Dimension Data - is currently taking applications for its own founding members!

Oh, you want to know more? So here's what you'll receive as a founding member:

1. 50% discount on all future events
2. One extra month FREE if you signup for 3 months
3. Three months FREE if you signup for 1 year or refer 10 people
4. Ongoing virtual access to our community

What else do you need to know?

1. You are one of the first to get this offer
2. This is by application only (we want the right people)
3. You've got to apply by or before 10pm April 28th (so hurry)
4. There's only 30 spots available

Once that date passes, it's gone! No more crazy discounts. No founding member status and the chance to anchor your new co-working community.

So what are you waiting for?

Yours in creativity and collaboration,

The Dimension5 Team
